A Siren.

[BY STARTET HOPE.]

Tell me not of stren sweet With the blue waves at their feet, When Ulysma planched his way across the sea: Who when breakfest has begun,

Step as light as any fawn; Sweetest eye where seem to dawn Beams of love and every kind of little wile; Figure like her features, chaste;

And a perfect intoxicating smile. Teeth as white as ocean apray; Lips where lightest fancies play,

Like warm soutseams in and out among the flowers Yet some soher flatights, I ween. Keep their vigils in between, When the twilight deepens into evening hours.

Polonaise of dove-like figt; Violet such that gives a hint Of the perfect tasts that through her nature creeps And a modest wiclet stocking. One to set the heart a knocking,

As from underneath the autin skirt it peope Well-n-day! Liyers old Was a warrior tried and bold, But I warrant he is for more tried and bolder Who this siren sees to day

And rues heart-whole on his way. Twas a wicked trick Dame Nature played to mould her

Variety.

If you call the Michigan people " Michiganders," ien't an Illinois man an " Illinoyster?"

A little boy's first pair of trousers always fit, if the pockets are deep enough. How does man differ from creation? He stands upright ; but he dossen't act so. "I live by my pen," said a poet, wishing to impress a young lady. "You look as if you lived in it," was the reply. A this person may succeed as a lecturer, but when a fat man gets through speaking and sits down he always leaves a deeper impression.

A phrenologist says the principal bump on George Washington's head is adhesiveness. He alludes to George's head on a postage stamp.

Prof. Tice of St. Louis refuses to make any more weather predictions until summer. Along about July he can predict mild weather and made a good hit. A harassed husband thinks if the dressmaker would trim his wife's dresses less and the butcher would trim his meat more he could meet his obliga-

What a silent old world it would be if men talked only as much as they think. A fellow would have to carry a rattle around with him to make a noise

An Italian has invented a torpedo which will not only blow up a 100-ton gun, but will shatter the ship, kill all the crew, and break all the dishes on the nearest land.

Retired citizen to metropolitan friend-" What I enjoy so much in the country is the quiet! Now, here, in my garden, my boy, you don't hear a sound, 'cepting the trains !" An Oregon boy who got to school the other day a few minutes before the master and his fellows, declared a vacancy, and cast the whole vote of the school in favor of a holiday.

A postal clerk in Dubuque openeda letter, just to see if a certain girl was sweet on a certain fellow. Hawaiian Steamer KILAUEA! She was, and the Government is also very sweet on the postal clerk.

A Missouri editor, in his wrathful denunciation of a political opponent, capped the climar of spithets with : " He is not only a rara avis, but we might almost say a genus Aomo." It seems to be a weakness of some editors to write on what they know the least about. Thus, the editor of the Virginia Chronicle gives his readers a leading article on the dangers of water as a beverage. Every man is said to have at least one opportunity to acquire wealth. In the case of a newspaper man, this opportunity comes on the 29th of February every year except leap year.

A young woman in Rochester, N. Y., bus sued for damages a man who kissed her. A man who can't kiss a woman without damaging her, ought to pay for his awkwardness. "It's a proof of the singular operation of the human mind," says a mental philosopher, "that when two men accidentally exchange hats, the one who gets the worst is always the first to notice the mistake."

The assertion that Tilden never contributed anything from his large fortune for the cause of education seems to be false. It is now asserted that he gave $10,000 toward the endowment of an Electoral College in Oregon.

He purchased his sweetheart a pair of ten button gloves, and handed them in at the door himself. The servant girl took them and going to the foot of the stairs, bawled up: "Please, miss, 'ere's a young man as has brought you a pair of leggins." An experienced lady observes that a good way to pick out a husband is to see how patiently he waits for his dinner when it is behind time. Her husband remarks that a good way to pick out a wife is to see whether she has dinner ready in time. The Court, severely : "Prisoner, this is not the first time you have been here. You have been conwicted six times of vagrancy, twice of theft, once of ____." The prisoner: "Your honor, let's omit all these irrelevant details and come to business."

Madame de Z. had just returned from a tour in Italy. "Well, and was it not beautiful " asked her friend. "Was no! Venice picturesque? " Mon Dieu ! said Madame de Z. "I had no chance of seeing anything in Venice. All the streets were flooded when I was there."

A gentleman, having an appointment with another who was habitually unpunctual, to his great surprise found him waiting. He thus addressed him : "Why, I see you are here first at last. You were always behind before, but I am glad to see that you have become carly of late."

"Billy, how did you loose your finger?" "Easy enough," said Billy. " I suppose you did-but how?" " I guess you'd have lost yourn if it had been where mine was." "That doesn't answer my question." " Well, if you must know," said Billy, "I had to cut it off, or else steal the crap."

General Mattoon of Amberst, Mass., formerly Sheriff of Hampton country, on starting one snowy winter many years ago to drive to Northampton to open court, met a team and shouted to the driver, "Turn out! I am high Sheriff of the county. The man pulled his cont-collar up around his ears and replied, "I don't care who you are; I am in no great hurry." The result was that the general had to unhitch and lead his horse by, while the stranger went his way. Meeting another team before resching Hadley the Sheriff tried the same game with better success, saying, " Tore out ! I am High Sheriff of the county. If you don't I'll serve you as I did a fellow I met back here a piece." The man inhitehed in a jiffy, put his sleigh up on the bank and let the Sheriff pass, and, as he did so, called out to him. "What did you do with that fellow back here?" " Oh." said the General, "he wouldn't turn out, so I turned out."
